

Mobility for the New Millennium Expert Forum

Land Use and Urban Development

March 23, 2001

Welcome	James M. Bourey, Maricopa Association of Governments	8:30-8:35
Introduction	Kathryn Lincoln, Lincoln Land Institute Background Introduction of the first speaker	8:35-8:45
John Landis	University of California at Berkeley Modeling to predict regional change	8:45-9:10
Kathryn Lincoln	Comments and questions from the audience Introduction of next speaker	9:10-9:25
Grady Gammage Jr.	Gammage and Burnham Metropolitan Phoenix growth patterns	9:25-9:50
Kathryn Lincoln	Comments and questions from the audience Introduction of next speaker	9:50-10:05
Gary Garczynski	National Association of Home Builders Housing trends and smart growth	10:05-10:30
Kathryn Lincoln	Comments and questions from the audience	10:30-10:40
Break	-----	10:40-10:55
Kathryn Lincoln	Introduce speaker	10:55-11:00
John McNamara	BRW Land use and transportation connections	11:00-11:25
Kathryn Lincoln	Comments and questions from the audience Introduction of final speaker	11:25-11:40
Reid Ewing	Rutgers University Center for Urban Policy Research Hybrid development	11:40-12:05
Public Discussion	Moderator, Kathryn Lincoln Open discussion to the panel and public for final questions and comments	12:05-12:30

Co-sponsors:

East Valley Chambers of Commerce Alliance